

Christian Brun

1970-2016

The sudden departure of Christian Brun has saddened and touched many. The wonderful tributes made all week demonstrated how deeply loved and appreciated he was by all those who crossed his path – from childhood and university friends, from his time working in Africa and in the fishing/seafood sector and the artistic community. He was an engaged and engaging man, a courageous champion for many causes, an accomplished artist and a loving father.

A group of Christian's friends and colleagues have created an education fund in his memory dedicated to his 14 year-old daughter. The initiative was launched with the support of his family.

Please convey your condolences by making a contribution to the "Fonds d'étude Txentchela Brun Education Fund".
